Litigator
OF THE Year FINALIST

WILLIAM F. LEE

WILMERHALE®

Mr. IP

Famed IP litigator
William Lee has been riding an amazing streak. The Wilmer Cutler Pickering and Hale LLP partner won big US Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit victories for Nintendo, Broadcom, and Abbott Laboratories. The Abbott win, in a dispute over its arthritis drug Humira, overturned a record-setting $1.67 billion infringement verdict. Lee successfully defended Apple in an International Trade Commission action against Nokia, and won a patent verdict for Wyeth over an acid reflux drug that could lead to over $1 billion in damages. All in a day's work.
